

Campus Tour Checklist

Make the most of your campus tours.

Be sure to plan ahead and have a list of questions ready.

The best time to visit a campus is during the week when classes are in session, in the fall, winter or early spring.

- ✓ Make an appointment for an official campus tour. These are usually led by a student who can answer many of your questions.
- ✓ Walk around campus on your own.
- ✓ Meet with an admissions officer.
- ✓ Pick up financial aid forms.
- ✓ Sit in on a class that interests you.
- ✓ Talk to other students and a professor in your chosen major.
- ✓ Talk to coaches of sports you may want to join.
- ✓ Read the student newspaper and listen to the college radio station.
- ✓ Eat a meal on campus.
- ✓ Check out the freshmen dorms and stay overnight if possible.
- ✓ Walk or drive around the community.
- ✓ Get names of people you meet for future contacts.
- ✓ Browse the college bookstore, library and student union.
- ✓ Can you imagine yourself as a student at this college?
